

News Release

Women's Fund of Weld County

For Immediate Release

CONTACT: Kelsey Vandemark

President

970-573-2620

Women's Fund of Weld County issues over $47,000 in grants

Greeley, Colo., January 16, 2023—The Women's Fund of Weld County today announced it has issued over $47,000 in grants to non-profit agencies serving Weld County and will contribute an additional $20,000 to its endowment fund. This is an increase of $3,000 from our grant disbursement of $44,000 last year.

"We are pleased to partner with and support 10 local non-profit agencies that meet the Fund's requirements," said Kelsey Vandemark, President of the Women's Fund of Weld County. "The grant recipients are providing much needed programs and services to improve the lives of girls and women in Weld County."

The grant recipients for 2022 include:

- Greeley-Weld Habitat for Humanity for the 2023 Women's Build Program
- The Rock Found for the Needs, Wants, and Desires Curriculum Program
- A Woman's Place for the Employment Support for Survivors of Domestic Violence
- Happiness Through Horses for the 2023 Self-Leadership for Girls Program
- Sacred Divine for the Female Empowerment Program
- Grace Upon Grace Project for the Access to Period Products Program
- Community Grief Center for the Moms Grief Support Group
- Leanna's Closet
- Stork Support of Northern Colorado for First Year Feeding Support
- Hope House Northern Colorado for the Teen Mother Education Program

Funds allocated by the Women's Fund allow area non-profit organizations to provide much-needed services to girls and women in Weld County.

The Women's Fund of Weld County hosts events throughout the year to supplement its annual grant program and to continue building its endowment to ensure future grant funding. The next event will be the 16th Annual Decadent Desserts event to be held at Zoe's Café at 715 10th Street in Greeley on Saturday, March 25, 2023. For additional information, please visit our website at www.weldwomensfund.org.

About the Women's Fund of Weld County, Inc.

The Women's Fund of Weld County, Inc. was founded in 1999 by women from the Weld County community dedicated to improving the lives of women and girls. The Women's Fund, a charitable fund of the Weld Community Foundation, was established with the purpose of creating an endowment fund.

This fund supports programs that address unmet needs of women and girls in Weld County to enable them to become self-confident, independent, contributing members of the community. Visit our website at www.weldwomensfund.org

- end -