Women's Fund of Weld County Opens 2022 Grant Cycle

Greeley, Colo., June 28, 2022—The Women's Fund of Weld County today announced the opening of the 2022 Grant Cycle. Grant applications are now being accepted for non-profit organizations that address unmet needs of women and girls in Weld County.

"In 2021, the Women's Fund awarded over $48,000 in grants to local non-profits with programs that support our mission," said Kelsey Vandemark, President of the Women's Fund of Weld County. "We are honored to have the opportunity to help improve the lives of women and girls in Weld County. In 2022, we are pleased to announce the improvement in our grants process with the automation of our application. Simply click this link (<https://www.grantinterface.com/sl/QEgqiq>) and you will be directed to our automated grants process through the Weld Community Foundation. You can also find additional information on our website."

Non-profit organizations (501(c)(3)), or groups within these organizations are encouraged to apply. The submission deadline is August 31, 2022.

Please visit our website at www.weldwomensfund.org to learn more about the criteria, application requirements and to apply. Grants for this cycle will be from $500 to $5,000 and applicants will be notified by October 1, 2022.

About The Women's Fund

The Women's Fund of Weld County, Inc. was founded in 1999 by women from the community dedicated to improving the lives of women and girls. The Women's Fund, a charitable fund of the Weld Community Foundation, was established with the purpose of creating a permanent fund to find, fund and nurture programs that address unmet needs of women and girls in Weld County to enable them to become self-confident, independent, contributing members of the community. Over the life of the fund, more than $425,000 has been awarded from The Women's Fund to Weld County organizations.
